SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1898.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertisements "out of free money" more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade and its advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Magnificent Display of Clothing, Gents' Furnishings and Shoes is That of Heehinger & Co., the Odd-fellows Hall Clothiers.

Among the many elegant city-like business houses in our town that of Heehinger & Co. ranks among the A. 1. nowhere will you find an establishment of its kind that carries a more elegant line of merchandise pertaining to their business than they do. With them you find Suits for Men, Boys and Children that are perfect gems in the art of ready-to-wear clothing. Their stock of Suits, Hats, Ties, Collars, &c., is perfectly bewildering in the number of styles and fashions.

In Men's Fine Shoes the House Stands Pre-eminent.

Visitors in our city during this week, after looking at the display Heehinger & Co. make in their windows, will agree with us that their unmatchable establishment would be an honor to cities many times larger than Maysville.

We can safely add that all visitors that call in at their store will be cleverly treated.

THE BEE HIVE.

A Car Load of Mattings

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streper—fair; Blue—bale or show; With Black spots—will warm; If Black separate—golden will; Golden Black's shown—no change will.

Good order through some other means than adding human force.

But since the call for men was made to set these matters right, this man, so prominent before, is keeping out of sight.

He has hurried to the front, as some folks thought he might.

It must be that he thinks himself too big and strong to fight.

THE LEDGER PRINTS THE REAL NEWS

The Grand Encampment of Kentucky Oddfellows has heard of Maysville's manner of doing things, and it will meet here next year. Come on, boys, we'll be right glad to see you.

S. E. Parker, Sharon, Wis., writes: "I have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for itching piles and it always stops them in two minutes. I consider DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve the greatest pile cure on the market." Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

Colonel J. E. Thompson of Augusta was in the city yesterday and made Tins Leno a pleasant call. Colonel Thompson is Editor and owner of The Chronicle, the brightest and the best paper that Bracken ever had, and it is gratifying to know that the people of that county are giving it cordial support.

Among the pleasant incidents of the Conclave was the presentation yesterday to DeMolay Commandery of a beautiful floral piece, a Cross and Crown. The gift was from J. David Dyer, Embroider Commander of Maysville No. 10, and it was received by Commander Meghemy of DeMolay with appropriate thanks.

The presentation took place on the steamer City of Louisville.

Miss Ella Martine of Lexington is the delightful guest of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall. Miss Martine is a Kentucky girl, endowed by her Creator with more than ordinary accomplishments. Aside from beauty and true loveliness of character she has a voice of glorious sweetness and will sing a most melodious strain at the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday night service 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Davis of New Richmond, O., passed to the great beyond yesterday, aged 75 years, at her home. She leaves six children—Mrs. D. E. Roberts, formerly of Maysville; Mrs. Ferguson of Goldfield, Col.; Judge Davis of Batavia, O.; John W. A. W. and R. A. of New Richmond. Mrs. Davis was in former years a resident of Maysville and some of our older citizens will remember her for her many virtues. She leaves a large family and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn her death. Among them is Mr. R. L. Hoeftich, who left this morning to attend the final service which occurs this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home.

Heehich's Saturday Cuck Notes, Parrot Day, largest stock, lowest prices, new Ties. Collars special prices.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

Pickett-Barbour Marriage to Take Place Wednesday Afternoon, June 1st.

The following handsome invitation has been sent to friends outside the city of the contracting parties:

Doctor Thomas Edward Pickett requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Margaret Abby

Mr. George Taylor Barbour on Wednesday June the first at half past two o'clock at the Church of the Nativity Maysville, Ky.

The young people are members of Maysville's oldest and wealthiest families and are quite well known throughout this section of the state.

The bride-to-be is noted for her rare mental accomplishments, while Mr. Barbour is among the most popular young men in the city.

THE MAN WHO TALKED.

Before the war began he raved and ripped and roared and swore.

He wanted vengeance for the Maine and the wrongs the Cuban bore.

He fumed because the President dared to restore to restore.

Good order through some other means than adding human force.

But since the call for men was made to set these matters right, this man, so prominent before, is keeping out of sight.

He has hurried to the front, as some folks thought he might.

It must be that he thinks himself too big and strong to fight.

BALLENGER,
Jeweler.

The City Council of Richmond has declared the street railway there a nuisance and ordered it to be torn up. The line has been in operation several years, but has not paid expenses.

The human machine starts but once and stops but once. You can keep it going longest and most regularly by using DeWitt's Little Early Riser, the famous little pills for constipation and all stomach and liver troubles. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

The line of survey for the Black Diamond Railway has been completed as far as Jackson, Breathitt county.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. Early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

BANQUET TONIGHT.

District Convention of the K. P.'s Will Conclude With One.

Maysville is certainly having her share of visitors this week.

The Knights Templars Conclave has closed, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock a convention, composed of representatives from K. of P. Lodges of Augusta, Mt. Olivet, Flemingsburg, Vanceburg, Kilgore, Russell, Ashland, Catlettsburg, Brookville, Germantown and Maysville will meet at Castle Hall of Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P.

Several of the Grand Lodge officers are expected to be present.

At the close of the business session a banquet will be given in the large room on West Second street adjoining the Frank Owens Hardware Store.

Deputy Sheriff Bowman of Lewis county went to Mt. Olivet yesterday for a warrant for one of the famous Crow girls, who recently made great notoriety on account of the family's resistance to officers, on which occasion the mother was killed. Miss Crow was arrested in Robertson for malicious shooting, and she is wanted in Lewis.

WILLIAM DAVIS:

How's that Chesapeake Coal? All o. k. The whole thing. Gives 35 per cent. more heat than any coal I ever burnt. Save me money. Well, I should think so. 35 cents on the dollar cuts running expenses down over a third. Make me rich! I'll mention it. Two hundred bushels will last longer and give better satisfaction in every way than three of Pomeroy. By long odds the best thing I ever got from Maysville. You say you will positively sell this Coal at the same price others get for Pomeroy? That's me to say. Do I use much Pomeroy now? Don't get gay with me; you must think I have the roomies. Any old thing don't suit me; wasn't raised that way. Best regards to everybody. Good-bye.

Dainty and Artistic

FANS

From far-away Japan. There are 500 of the Fans. All of them are made and ornamented in the inimitable Japanese fashion.

Some bear figures of strange and fantastic birds and animals. On some beautiful chrysanthemums and cherry blossoms bloom almost as natural as life. Others again are decorated with men and women in the artistic garb of the Japanese. Each one of them is worth commercially as much again as our price—another trump for cash. Judged by the standard of art excellence as understood in America, these fan prices are not one-tenth of true values. Just think of figures like these for really artistic and picturesque Fans.
